

PLANS NEARLY COMPLETE FOR COMMENCEMENT

Committees Are Hard at Work on Arrangements for Class Day Exercises and Senior Ball

MANY EVENTS SCHEDULED

Charlatans Will Present "The Bad Man" on Friday Evening

With Commencement less than three weeks off, plans for both alumni reunions and the regular senior activities are rapidly being completed. The annual Charlatans performance, the senior ball, Class Day, and the various prize speaking exhibitions have been already arranged, while the order of the sessions of alumni and trustees will remain undoubtedly the same as in previous years.

The week of Commencement will be opened on Friday, June 17, following the final examinations of the year, with Class Day exercises at 10 a. m. for the seniors of 1927. Thomas A. Hickok, chairman of the Class Day committee, states that in addition to the usual procedure of electing the best dressed man and making the other senior awards, election of a man to receive the square will be held. The awarding of the square is made to the man of the most honorable, upright qualities and is considered the greatest tribute that a man may receive in college. It is expected that there will be various novelties this year in the Class Day exercises.

On Friday afternoon, after the annual Commencement session of the Board of Trustees, the McKinney Prize Declamation contest will be held in the Chapel at 4. In the evening the Charlatans will present in the gymnasium, "The Bad Man," a three act comedy written by Porter Emerson Browne. The play, upon which the cast is now working daily, promises to be highly entertaining. Goodwin, '27, will play the leading role. Following the presentation of the play, the Senior Ball will take place. The Purple Pirates of Williams will furnish music for the dancing which will last from 11:30 to 6. Tickets will soon be on sale for Senior Ball and, up till June 15, will be sold for five dollars. For all tickets purchased after that date, the price will be six dollars.

The program for Saturday consists of the Annual Meeting of the Society of Alumni in the Chapel at 10:30 A. M., while the President's annual Reception will be given from four to six in the afternoon. The Clark Prize Exhibition comes, as usual, at 7:30 in the Chapel.

The Baccalaureate Service will occupy Sunday morning, the recital of the Choir coming at five in the afternoon. The Choir, which has had one

ASSISTANT MANAGERS TO BE ELECTED FRIDAY

On Friday evening, June 3, will be held the annual spring meeting of the General Association for Undergraduate Activities. The ranking of the assistant managers will be announced. There has been considerable interest shown in the competition as the new system has just begun to function properly and there has been much less criticism about it than formerly.

As usual the ranks have dwindled greatly since the beginning of the year, but there are still 10 men out for the competition from whom the new managers will be selected. They are: P. R. Adams, R. T. Barnes, L. P. Bremer, J. H. Chapin, A. R. Crane, J. P. Edwards, W. J. Foley, D. E. Hunn, A. R. Ostrander, N. G. Russell and H. B. Williams. Those chosen will serve as assistant managers next season and will assume their duties their senior years.

CLASS IN DRAMATICS TO GIVE TWO PLAYS

Presents "The Drums of Oude" and "Love of One's Neighbor"

After the meeting of the College body in Commons Friday evening, June 3, Professor Fancher's class in dramatic interpretation will give two one-act plays, one, an exciting melodrama, the other a very amusing satirical comedy. The entertainment will be open to the undergraduates and members of the faculty and their families. Previously plays given by the class in the spring term have been presented in the Little Theater, allowing only a limited attendance.

The melodrama will be the first in the order of appearance. It is "The Drums of Oude" by Austin Strong and deals with an incident in the uprising of the Sepoys in India. The characters of the play and the men who will take them are as follows: Captain McGregor, Pitcher; Lieut. Hartley, Bauer; Sergeant McDougal, Graves; Private Stewart, Corby; two Hindustani servants, Mangan and Jones; Mrs. Jack Clayton, Heyl.

The second short play, an extremely appealing comedy by the Russian author, Leonid Andreyev, is called "Love of One's Neighbor." The plot of the comedy arises from a series of happenings at a summer resort in the Swiss Alps, and in its development the human race is mercilessly satirized. The characters and players follow:

First Policeman, Ingalls; Second Policeman, Mosher; A Father, Miller; A Mother, Graves; Alec, their son, Corby; Mary, their daughter, Beardsley; First Tourist, Hallock; Second Tourist, Jones; Third Tourist, Heyl;

POOR SCHEDULES MADE FOR FRESHMAN TEAMS

Last week closed the first spring season for freshman teams since the one year rule was put into effect. In the meager schedules arranged for the frosh, the tennis team was the only one to win any games.

Playing its sole game of the season, the baseball team lost to the Colgate freshmen 12-5. Several men showed up well and even had the Maroon at a 5-2 advantage in the fifth inning, but the visitors soon gauged the mediocre pitching of Savage and set out on a hitting spree that gave them the game without trouble.

The tennis team is the bright spot on the freshman horizon. In a match with the Utica Free Academy, the freshmen were barely kept from victory after a prolonged battle that finally ended in a tie, 4-4. The Cortland High outfit proved much earlier opponents and were easily downed 5-0. Such players as Chase, Best, Sarles, Jenks, Law and J. Fanning, who did good work on the frosh team, should strengthen next year's varsity materially.

Judging from the results, the track team was poorer comparatively than either the tennis or baseball outfits. Colgate, with probably one of the best freshmen track teams in the East, was the only opponent. The affair was one-sided enough to be ridiculous, as the final score of 113-13 proves. Ford, who earned nine of these points for Hamilton, shows possibilities of developing into an excellent runner and should make the varsity next year.

Regardless of the poor scores turned in by the baseball and track teams, freshman athletics this spring have at least had the result of getting out a lot of men who would otherwise have given up competition as hopeless.

Buff and Blue Baseball Team Wins Seven Out Of Nine Games

Saturday's victory over Clarkson marked the end of one of the most successful baseball seasons that Hamilton has had in recent years. Of nine games played, the Buff and Blue registered a total of seven victories. A tenth game, a return game with Albany Teachers' College, had to be cancelled because of rainy weather. Hamilton's wins were made in the games with Colgate, Clarkson, Albany Teachers', R. P. I., Oberlin, and in two games with Rochester. Losses were sustained in the encounters with Syracuse and St. Lawrence.

The season opened here April 26 with Syracuse, probably the strongest team on the schedule. The game, which was very slow because of the cold weather, resulted in a 6-0 victory for the Orange. Morris pitched the entire nine innings and with eight strike-outs to his credit, was the outstanding Hamilton player. A predicted weakness in batting which was also noticeable in last year's team was evidenced by the fact that the Buff and Blue made but four hits. In the field, however, the team showed up well.

In a loosely played game at Rochester on April 20, the Hamilton nine won its first victory of the season by a score of 5-4 when four runs were secured in the eighth inning on an error by the Rochester left in-fielder. With eight hits off Collamer, three of which were made by Chatfield, the team showed much improvement over the Syracuse game. Morris had a gala day on the mound, making 13 strikeouts and allowing six hits.

It took 10 innings the following Saturday to annex a 7-6 win over the R. P. I. nine at Troy. The Buff and Blue uncorked a strong batting rally in the opening half of the tenth and added two runs to break a 5-5 tie. Walt Knox was the stellar player of the day for Hamilton. He pitched the entire nine innings and also knocked out two triples. His assortment of curves and puzzlers saved the game several times when poor support threatened to lose it for him.

On Wednesday, May 10, the team accomplished the greatest athletic feat of the year when it triumphed over the powerful Colgate nine in a thrilling mound duel which ended with a score of 2-1. The game was featured by the superb work of Jack Morris, who not only held the heavy-hitting Colgate nine to six hits but also hit a two-bagger. In sliding back to second base he threw his left shoulder out of joint, but continued for the three remaining innings.

At the same time Morris was given practically air-tight support by his teammates. Colgate's only tally was made in the fifth when Bridges hit a two-bagger, stole third, and came home on a sacrifice fly by Welch. Hamilton's first score was brought in by Warren, who was running for Morris when Knox tripled. The winning run came in the "lucky seventh." Scholtz's only pass of the game gave Chatfield his base. A high throw by the Colgate catcher into right field enabled him to reach third. Excitement ran high in the Hamilton camp as both Worboys and King struck out, but Warren saved the day with a long single which brought in Chatfield. With masterful pitching and accurate fielding Colgate was held scoreless in the remaining two innings.

On Saturday of the same week the Buff and Blue team again defeated the Rochester nine, this time with a 3-0 shut-out. Knox pitched fine ball, allowing only three hits and fanning eight men. His two-bagger in the fifth brought in the first run of the game. At only one point in the game did the visitors seriously threaten to score when their best chance was ruined by a double play, McLean to Church to Worboys. Warren and Worboys each fattened their batting averages with two hits, Warren with two singles and Worboys with two doubles.

On Tuesday, May 17, the Hamilton team overwhelmed the State Teachers' College team at Albany with a score of 12-3. Donahue pitched a fine game, allowing only two hits and striking out 10 men. In the seventh the team went into a veritable batting orgy and brought in six runs, and throughout, in every department of the game, outplayed its opponents.

The winning streak was extended to six on the following Friday in a 3-2 victory over Oberlin on the Hill. Morris allowed only one hit but errors enabled Oberlin to score twice. All of the scoring was done in the first three innings and the rest of the game developed into a rather uninteresting pitcher's battle.

In a northern trip ending the season, the team lost a hard-fought tenning struggle to St. Lawrence with a score of 3-2 and overwhelmed Clarkson with a score of 9-2.

Hamilton Relay Team Places First In Second Annual N. Y. S. I. A. C. Meet

By rolling up 70½ points in the second New York State Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track and field meet held at Rochester Saturday afternoon, the track team of Alfred University for the second time carried away first honors. Rochester was second with 58½ points, Hamilton third with 43 points, St. Lawrence fourth with 34 points, and Niagara fifth with 4 points. Hamilton partially compensated for its failure to capture the "Little Ten" cup by showing its heels to the other colleges in the mile relay, thus gaining possession of the "Little Ten" relay cup.

In spite of the fact that Hamilton scored two firsts and a goodly number of seconds and thirds, it was unable to compete with Alfred, who carried away first honors in six events. DeSormo, of Hamilton, accounted for one of Hamilton's firsts when he threw the javelin 153 feet, 4 inches for a new conference record. Brockway scored the other first for Hamilton by winning the discus throw.

Seven new Conference records were established and two set last year were equalled in the course of the afternoon. Getz of Alfred set a new record of 4:36 1-5 in the one mile run; Nellis of Alfred set a new record of 11 feet, 1-2 inches in the pole vault, and Fredericks of Alfred and Wilson of Rochester tied for a new mark of five feet, 9 1-4 inches in the high jump. Gibbs of Alfred made a record of 16 2-5 seconds for the 120-yard high hurdles, and Jenks of Rochester established the time of 26 1-5 seconds for the 220 yard low hurdles. Boulton of Alfred made a new record of 10:02 1-5 for the two mile run. Metz of Rochester equalled the record of 10 seconds for the 100 yard dash and the record of 22 4-5 seconds for the 220 yard dash.

Cutter of Hamilton placed second in the 120 yard high hurdles, in the 220 yard low hurdles, and in the running broad jump for a total of 12 points, which made him individual high scorer of the meet. The half mile proved to be Hamilton's strongest running event when, in a close finish, Ahner placed second and Scheu fourth. In the 440 Baker placed third and Kirby fifth. Leich secured a fourth in the low hurdles and a third in the 100 yard dash, while Jacobsen placed fifth in the hundred and fourth in the 220.

The relay proved one of the most exciting races of the day. Ahner, after having placed second in the half mile, ran first for Hamilton but was unable in his tired condition to match strides with the speedy Rochester runner who secured a 20-yard lead. Walker, however, with a sensational bit of running overtook the second Rochester man on the back stretch and came in with a good 15-yard lead over the nearest man. Kirby and Baker, the other two Hamilton men, increased this lead to give the Buff and Blue a victory by a large margin.

The summary:

Pole Vault: Nellis, Alfred, 1st; Klinger, Alfred, 2nd; Taylor, Rochester, 3rd; Kelly, Alfred, 4th; Lyons, St. Lawrence, 5th. Height, 11 ft., ½ in. (new record).

16 pound shot put: Williams, St. Lawrence, 1st; Tate, Alfred, 2nd; Merrit, Rochester, 3rd; Menna, Niagara, 4th; Kelly, Alfred, 5th. Distance 37 ft. 7 in.

One mile run: Getz, Alfred, 1st; Page, Rochester, 2nd; Minnock, St. Lawrence, 3rd; Keefe, Alfred, 4th; Brown, Alfred, 5th. Time 4:36 1-5 (new record).

INTER-CLASS SING SET FOR THURSDAY NIGHT

The date for the annual inter-class sing for this year has been set for Thursday night at 9. According to the rules of the contest, each class will sing "Fair Hamilton" as well as a song of its own choice. Following the contest the classes will gather in front of the chapel to sing Carissima and to hear the judges' decision.

The prize for the winning class will be the privilege of having its name engraved on the silver loving cup presented last year by Prof. and Mrs. Fancher. For the last two years the contest has been won by the class of 1928.

TRACK TEAM CLOSES RATHER POOR SEASON

Third in Conference Meet Only Bright Spot of Season

Winning third place in the Conference meet at Rochester and first in the relays, the Buff and Blue track team somewhat atoned for a rather unsuccessful season. The closest contest was the annual meet with Rochester University during house party when Hamilton lost by only eight points.

In every meet the greatest weakness seemed to be in the distance runs, as in nearly every instance the Hamilton men were barely allowed second or third places. There were four individual stars, however; Capt. Brockway, Cutter, Jacobsen and De Sormo, who each took firsts in the discus, hurdles, sprints and javelin, respectively.

Beginning with the first meet of the season against R. P. I., the Hamilton entries were overwhelmingly defeated. With a victory over Middlebury to their credit, the R. P. I. runners took nearly all places in the distance events. However, this weakness was partly offset by the good work on the part of Jacobsen, Cutter and Brockway.

A week later on Saturday, May 14, Hamilton lost to Middlebury by the decisive score, 103-23. The only bright lights for Hamilton were Cutter, who again took two firsts in the hurdles and a third in the broad jump, and Capt. Brockway, who placed first in the discus and third in the high hurdles.

In the third start of the season, the

CHATFIELD, KNOX, AND NORMILE GET WAS LOS

Beginning with an unwonted gentleness and consideration in the honorary tapping of Wallace B. Johnson, '15, Field Secretary and Hamilton Alumnus par excellence, the active members of Was Los, the junior honorary society of the college, have started eulging good men and true from the sophomore class.

What is considered the highest campus honor for a junior, that of being the first man tapped for Was Los, was given Sherwood Clarke Chatfield of Washington, D. C., last Wednesday morning. "Chatty's" ability was soon recognized after his arrival on the Hill last year, and the confidence of his classmates was given him in electing him as their president. His backfield playing on the gridiron, a pillar of strength in all games of the Buff and Blue, is well known on the campus, and his heady, consistent play behind the bat in baseball is a matter that needs no mention. Chatfield is also a member of the College Choir. He belongs to Sigma Phi and the D. T. Club.

Besides being the only High Honor man in his class last year, Walter Knox of New York, the second man to be tapped, is also a stellar pitcher on the varsity nine. His work on the mound has been invaluable to the team both this year and last. "Walt" is also a member of D. T., and his fraternity affiliations are with Theta Delta Chi.

John R. Normile of Binghamton was the third and last man to have been tapped at the end of last week. He has distinguished himself with no mean ability at his regular berth of left guard on the basketball squad. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and of D. T.

The three final tappings will undoubtedly be made early this week, the last man chosen having in store for him the time-honored fountain bath.

BASEBALL TEAM WINS AND LOSES ON TRIP NORTH

St. Lawrence Edges Out 3-2 Victory on Friday in Close Pitchers' Battle

SECOND REVERSAL OF SEASON

Clarkson Falls Seventh Victim to McBride's Batsmen

Hamilton completed an unusually successful baseball season by breaking even in their trip of last weekend, losing to St. Lawrence 3-2 and defeating Clarkson in a well played game last Saturday by a score of 9-2. The final games credit the team with seven victories and two defeats.

Friday's game at Canton was played in unusually raw weather, discouraging to the spectators and making play difficult for both teams. St. Lawrence broke into the lead in the first inning when a long single to center-field drove in the two men who were on base. Skovrak, however, was himself caught attempting to steal second, thus giving Hamilton its first try at bat.

They were unsuccessful in making any scores, however, until the sixth inning. Then Knox came to bat and walked. Church hit a long one to center, driving Knox to third. Chatfield hit an easy one but Knox beat the throw home in a close play, bringing the score up to 2-1.

Neither team was able to rally again until the ninth, when Hamilton scored in a beautiful rally that looked for a time as if it would net them the game. Worboys got a clean single and was advanced to second when St. Lawrence's second baseman fumbled a grounder hit by Warren. Hassard was walked, forcing Worboys to third and Warren on to second. The catcher, Welti, in missing a pitched ball, allowed Worboys to cross the plate and tie the score. Pierce fled to left field, making three down for Hamilton.

In the tenth Keller, with two down, hit a long single to left field and managed to make second on a steal. Welti lined out a long drive over left fielder's head that resulted in three bases and won the game for St. Lawrence.

Saturday the team moved on to Potsdam, where they whitewashed Clarkson with a score of 9-2. The game was brilliantly played and furnished a fitting ending to a successful season for the Buff and Blue nine.

Hamilton opened with three scores in the first, McLean starting with a clean double followed by a single by Church that sent him over the plate. An error by the Clarkson first baseman put Chatfield on base and Worboys scored.

PRIZE DEBATE WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday evening, June 1, the annual McKinney Prize Debate will be held in the College Chapel. The six members of the senior class who will take part are: Doane Comstock, H. Jackson King, Frederic S. Marguardt, Darwin R. Pickard, Henry W. Swartwout and George G. Tyler. The proposition is: Resolved, That this house deplores the intervention of the United States in Central American affairs.

The participants are not assigned sides until 24 hours before the debate. Prizes of $50 and $25 are provided for the first and second best debaters, respectively, from a foundation of $1500 made by the late Charles McKinney of Binghamton. The speeches must be made without the aid of notes. The award is made by a committee of five judges, not members of the Faculty, and is announced at the close of the debate.

ATHLETICS AT HAMILTON

(This is the last of a series of three editorials on the three main topics of undergraduate life: scholarship, athletics, and other extra-curricular activities, written by a trio of seniors prominent in these departments. The purpose of these articles is not to afford the men an opportunity to work off any old grudges, but rather, to allow men who have been closely connected with these problems during their college course to express their honest opinions of existing situations.—Editor's Note.)

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

One of the main advantages of a small college, so they say, is the opportunity given a man in a group of four hundred to take an active part in college life, to contribute some bit toward the whole, and thus to save himself from being "lost in the shuffle." Hamilton with its restricted enrollment is admirably suited to assist in this phase of collegiate education because of its numerous extra-curricular activities, which are ready to satisfy that innate longing for self-expression. Publications, glee club and choir, instrumental club, Charlatans, Y. M. C. A., and managerial positions offer students, mainly those who are unable to take active parts in athletics, the chance to develop by contact with their fellows outside of the classroom.

Undoubtedly the benefits from outside activities are often greatly over-emphasized. Yet, granting that extra-curricular work if carried to extremes is detrimental, and disregarding the benefits to the college and the fraternities from such participation, we must come to the conclusion that the underlying basis for extra-curricular work, as far as the individual is concerned, is essentially sound. First, any normal man must have a diversion, a change from the constant grind at the books. To be sure there are exceptional men who see a definite aim ahead of them, as medicine or teaching, and can keep plugging toward the goal, but for the ordinary man the constant assimilation of knowledge without action means mental stagnation and retrogression. Sophomore year, the competitive year for most extra-curricular activities, is likewise the time of the greatest mental upheavals. Freshman year with its disillusionment and partial readjustment is past. The new grouping of ideas and ideals, the search for new foundations is furthered if the student has some outside activity to work for to enable him to achieve a philosophy to replace that which has been found inadequate. Perhaps all unconsciously, extra-curricular work has kept Hamilton out of the suicide club!

For it is to extra-curricular work that the average student here must turn for diversion. Unlike a co-educational institution Hamilton, apart from the world, has little social activity. Far from attaining its ideal of athletics for all, Hamilton's organized sports still hold satisfaction only for the few who are able to most nearly match the prowess of those representing other schools. In consideration of these factors there is nothing better for the shy underclassman than the wearing off of his diffidence by mixing with other men of his class in the strenuous competition or friendly cooperation of extra-curricular activities. Likewise for the active, business-like, go-getter, activities afford a source of gratification and serve to allay his desire for really doing something, while allowing him the opportunity to receive the benefits of a cultural education.

As far as the activities themselves are concerned at Hamilton, the least one can say is that they rank on a par with the rest of the undergraduate life. As the winning of games is not the primary aim of athletics, so the purpose fulfilled is far more important than any achievements in extra-curricular work. That once in a college generation there flashes on the horizon a real baseball team, a choir, or a capable publication is all the more gratifying.

The state of extra-curricular activities has changed but little during the brief stay of the class of 1927. The Royal Gaboon combined with "Old Lit," died, and was succeeded by the Chaperon, which in turn has only recently revived the name of the Gaboon; the Charlatans, with three plays to its credit this year, seems started on the way up hill once more; the Glee Club may be doomed, being completely overshadowed by the Choir, which, subsidized as it is by the college authorities, enjoys the advantages of continuous leadership; the Instrumental Club has found companionship in the more or less veiled Symphonic Orchestra; while the Press Club staggers along as usual, unaided most of all by the Administration.

The salient weakness in the extra-curricular system at Hamilton is the indifference toward managerships. This apathy continues to reign despite the inauguration of a new athletic managerial system, and a great lessening of work for the managers. The case of one scrub-manager in track three years ago is paralleled by the presence of only eleven men at the finish of the present all-year, all-sport competition. Likewise, a single man competed for the managership of the Musical Clubs, and only two for Life. How much better off many of the would-be-athletes of freshman and sophomore years would be in their upperclassman years if they had entered a managerial competition and worked for a position which would give them a definite interest in college life! Instead, aping some athletes' disdain for the manager, they continue on their disappointing path and are dropped from the squad as juniors or seniors. How much blame can be laid at the door of coaches who are over-enthusiastic of making a find once in a hundred cases, and how much at the door of the activities' committees of fraternities, who fortunately are responsible for most of the men who do compete, it is hard to say. And despite his outside activity, a man, if he is sensible, is not sacrificing his opportunity to obtain plenty of exercise, thanks to the excellent facilities of a golf course, tennis courts, and an ice palace.

We have seen that fundamentally the place of extra-curricular work in college is sound, and is especially adapted to life at Hamilton. Moreover, as after graduation the big lawyer, doctor, or business man who is respected is the one who besides making a success of his vocation has time over and above for his family and for service on boards of clubs, churches, and community drives, so the man at college is respected most who enters into the life here and who does something besides what is required of him. It is almost immaterial whether the man with honors on the campus will be a big man after graduation, even though many do claim that extra-curricular work is a help in later life. The point of the whole question is: College is not just a preparation for life, it is life itself. And the man who really lives at Hamilton is he who has put something into and felt some of the pride of success and some of the disappointments of the life on the Hill.

PI DELTS HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET IN HOTEL UTE

Pi Delta Epsilon's annual initiation banquet was held at the Hotel Ute last Wednesday night. The Hamilton chapter, Alpha Sigma, of the national journalistic fraternity was founded in 1921.

Paul B. Williams, editor in chief of the Daily Press, as the principal speaker of the evening advised the society to concentrate its efforts in improving its publication upon the one most representative of Hamilton College. The outgoing officers of the fraternity recounted the history and possibilities for the future of Pi Delta Epsilon.

Next year's officers were elected after the speaking program: President, F. A. Ballard; vice-president, S. M. Pitcher; secretary, Bruce F. Tatlock; treasurer, T. R. Ingalls. Twelve new members were initiated: Julius T. Kuck, Frederick W. Leich, Jr., Reginald W. Lyon, Lester R. Mosher, Seymour M. Pitcher, Henry K. Yuan, George Clark, Jr., Paul Combs, Theodore H. Ingalls, Theodore S. Corwin, Francis E. Mineka, and Nelson G. Russell.

FINAL GOLF MATCHES TAKE PLACE THIS WEEK

The interfraternity golf championship will be decided this week when the Psi Upsilon team meets that of Sigma Phi. The winner will be given a cup awarded by Delta Upsilon for this purpose. Both teams seem of championship material and it will be difficult to forecast the victor.

Interest in golf has been unusually high this year since golf will be a recognized sport next year under the supervision of the Executive Council. This interfraternity championship will be followed by an elimination tournament to decide the individual championship of the college.

An Unknown Man, Wallace B. Johnson; A Militant Woman, S. B. Bennett; The Man in the White Vest, Bauer; A Drunken Man, Mangan; Second Drunken Man, Thomas; A Newspaper Correspondent, Pitcher; A Pastor, Estelow; A Salvation Army Man, Mangan; The Man Carrying the Pole, Goodwin.

These two plays that are to be presented are the ones that Mr. Faner's class has been using for study and interpretation in the work of the second semester. Those who will attend the plays can therefore be assured of entertainment that will rank with the best of amateur productions.

WHERE YOU FIND GROWTH AND EXPANSION THERE YOU FIND OPPORTUNITY

The great organization of Remington Rand, Inc., compassing practically the entire field of office systems and appliances, presents tremendous possibilities for young men from 22 years of age who are mature in mind and are willing to learn and to work. To such men is offered a training period of seven to nine months, including a month or more of resident school instruction. There is a salary during the training period, which is continued and progressively increased if increasing ability is demonstrated.

Remington Rand representatives are engaged in the highest type of sales work. They are daily meeting the executives and business administrators of the great organizations of the world. They are devising and installing office systems for handling and protecting records in every department of every business.

You must decide soon where opportunity lies. We know that there is great opportunity here.

We'll be glad to explain it to you, if you'll write to us.

Saves Razor Blades

THE softer your beard when shaving, the less work for your razor. Williams Shaving Cream softens the beard bristles so completely that the razor just glides through them. This eliminates "pull" and lengthens the life of your blades. Then, Williams lubricates the skin for easy shaving and leaves it glove-smooth after the shave. Two sizes—35c and 50c.

Carpe Diem

NOTICE

On recommendation of the President the name of this column should be changed to "Carpe Dime."

EXCERPT FROM "COLGATE MAROON"

Hamilton College won a closely played game from the Maroon on Wednesday by a 2-1 score. Knox's three-base hit in the last of the sixth sent in Warren, who was running for Morris, and tied up the one run lead made by Colgate in the fifth when Bridges doubled and scored on Richardson's single. Hamilton made the winning run in the seventh inning. It was another case of a hard fought game with the Maroon getting the upper hand in the hits, outitting the Hamiltonians 6-5.

ADD HAMILTON CREDO

21. That anyone who really wants to spend the time, can easily obtain a Phi Beta Kappa key.

22. That 20 years ago Hamilton turned out athletic teams capable of defeating any college in the East.

23. That the Hamilton College campus is shaded by venerable elms and is second to none in point of great natural beauty.

24. That Hamilton College will soon have a gymnasium.

25. That the College Well is emblematic of Social Life at Hamilton. (See college bulletin).

NEJOS.

Dear Carp:

I'm only a Charlattans' ass-manager but I know a good joke when it hits me. It was this way. I was over to Bob Warner's friend, Mr. Burton, to borrow a hammer and a saw. He says to me: "Who in the dickens wants these, Dold or Brink?" (only not in them words). "Mr. Dold," says I to him because it was Al wanted them. "No matter," says he to me, "they both look just the same to me." Gee, but I laughed.

PHIOTA.

COMPLAINTE TRISTE

While the air is beginning to resound with preliminary "Te Deums" and other paeans of joy over the imminent departure of Messrs. Snider, Bachmann and Lewis, there is one discordant note; a fly in the ointment; one flaw in the general rosiness of the immediate future. The wailing, lamentation and gnashing of teeth come from no less a personage than Carpe himself, whose grief "passeth all understanding", who "refuses to be comforted," in other words is quite inconsolable. "Where, oh where," he sobs, "will I ever find their equals?" To tell the truth, the situation really looks quite serious, and, unless the college imports a "fall line" of exceptionally fine quality (?), we venture to prophesy right now that Drs. Bonham, Burton, and Dale are in for an unusually tough year.

NEJOS.

SOUNDS IMPROBABLE

The benefits of ethics 4 are really quite exceeding. For now, we can review a book without a single reading.

BURTON STAGES LAST MINUTE RALLY

We wish to congratulate Mr. Superintendent L. M. Burton on his extraordinary ability to crash through at the last minute. For a while it looked as though Spring House Party would slip by without a single building on the campus being decorated with scaffolding. But he never fails. Just in the nick of time some went up on the administration building. His record now stands clear. Close shave though.

OUR OWN RIP VAN WINKLE

The twenty year sleep (or was it fifty) of Prof. M. L. ("Flash") Bonham Jr came to a sudden conclusion the other day when the notorious educator (?) woke up (during the Siege of Vicksburg) and, incidentally in the exact mathematical center of Hist. 8, to the realization that he must cover 60 years and 10 chapters in 3 days. We quote the prof. himself: "I guess we'll have to speed up a bit." "You guessed right that time," was the lightning retort of the outraged, swindled and badly cheated students. Somebody must have told him that the year was nearly over!

Me
and the joy-friend...
Prince Albert

WHEN my father was in college, "Put that in your pipe and smoke it!" was considered snappy conversation. I'm ready to take this old line literally when the talk centers around Prince Albert. Because P. A. makes two of what I like in a pipe.

All wise-cracking aside, P. A. is the money when it comes to deep-down satisfaction in a smoke. It's got everything! Cool as the trail of the ice-man across the kitchen. Sweet as vacation. Fragrant as a pine forest.

Think up your own similes. You'll write them all in the column headed "Superlative Degree" when you learn the joys of a jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert. If you don't know this grand old smoke, come around to my room and I'll give you a load.

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

BASEBALL TEAM WINS AND LOSES ON TRIP

boys' long two-bagger brought in Church and Chatfield.

In the second inning Hamilton again broke loose. McCartney walked Knox and McLean's double brought him in. Warren singled and McLean came home, bringing the score to 5-0. In the second half Clarkson started a rally that appeared to be serious for several minutes. Bucher scored a double and Knox walked. Hale, O'Hare made first on a grounder, putting Bucher on third. A long grounder by Patterson into center field brought Hale and O'Hare in, Bucher having been retired on a steal.

In the fourth McLean got going with a single, stole second and Chatfield brought him in. This was the last tally made by Hamilton until the seventh, when Worboys and Chatfield lined out doubles and were brought in by Pierce's single.

The final score of the game came in the eighth when Chatfield's double brought Church over the plate for a 9-2 victory.

COMMENCEMENT PLANS ARE NEARLY COMPLETED

of the most successful years in its history, will no doubt offer an excellent program at this time. Inasmuch as there was some difficulty experienced last year in obtaining seats, it is advisable to arrange at an early date for tickets for this concert.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock, the 115th Commencement will be held in the Chapel. At this time awards of prizes will be made and the various commencement orations will be delivered. Following the conferment of degrees in course and honorary degrees, an Alumni Luncheon will be held in Commons, bringing the activities to a close.

While the Dix Plan, which was put into operation at Hamilton a few years ago, calls for the reunion of the classes of '25, '23, '22, '21, '20, '04, '03, '02, '01, '85, '84, '83, '82, '77, '66, '65, '64, and '63, it is understood that all classes desiring to hold reunions otherwise will do so.

Because of the inadequacy of the college buildings, an attempt will be made to locate rooms and boarding-places for the housing of alumni and their families. Any alumnus desiring to reserve such accommodations should apply to the Commencement Committee, office of the President.

next week, the Buff and Blue made a much better showing, and not until the last event was victory decided for Rochester. Again, as in the previous trials, Cutter featured for Hamilton, taking this time three firsts in the hurdles and broad jump and a tie for second in the high jump, accounting for 17 of Hamilton's points in the 67-59 score. DeSorno, entering for the first time since his illness, provided interesting when he broke his own N. Y. S. I. A. C. javelin record by 12 feet.

Much better time in several of the distance events furnished evidence of the team's improvement in the Conference meet last Saturday. Baker and Kirby placed in the 440, and Ahner and Scheu in the half mile. Brockway was first in the discus, De Sorno, who raised the Conference javelin record, and Cutter with second positions in both hurdles and the broad jump, featured for Hamilton. Probably the best part of the day was the winning of a Conference cup for the Buff and Blue by the mile relay team composed of Baker, Walker, Kirby and Ahner.

Al Doty, Holley Marquardt, and Frank Nichols, '26, were on the Hill Sunday.

TRUSTEES ADOPT NEW RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Board of Trustees and are in effect at the present time:

Resolved, That all undergraduates be required to register not later than Aug. 1 for their return to College and to deposit a fee of $25 at the time of registration, such deposit to be applied on the tuition for the first semester or to be forfeited in case the undergraduate fails to return without giving sufficient notice.

Resolved, That those found guilty of using fire hoses without due warrant, kindling fires in dormitories elsewhere than in fireplaces, breaking windows or otherwise injuring property, be denied the privilege of renewing leases to their rooms, in addition to such penalty as the faculty may justly impose.

Resolved, That whenever damages are assessed for injuries to dormitory rooms, including breaking of windows, the assessment be 50% above the specific cost of repairs for general incidental damages.

YOU

The Graduating Seniors
Are facing the question
"WHAT TO DO NEXT"

Some of you are well fixed; you have a family business to work with. It will be to your interest to think about the new development, Group Insurance, which will be a factor of increasing importance in the relations of your business to its employees.

Some of you have a decided bent, and are going to follow it. One way of making sure that you will finish the course of life you have chosen is to take advantage of Annuity, Endowment, and Straight Life Insurance.

Some of you have worked for your education and must earn as much money as you can, as quickly as possible. The selling of Life Insurance gives the most and quickest return for hard work; it also offers the greatest freedom for original enterprise. It is not a push-button job. The John Hancock is looking for men like you and would like to hear from you.

These moderns demand Camels

MODERN smokers are the most critical ever known, and Camel is their favorite. Why?

Camel is the one cigarette that will stand up all day and as far into the night as you care to go.

Modern, experienced smokers know that they can smoke one or a million Camels with never a tired taste or a cigarette after-taste. Present-day smokers demand goodness, and find it in Camels—the choicest tobaccos grown and matchless blending. That is why Camel is favorite in the modern world.

If you want the choice of the hardest-to-please smokers of all time, if you yearn for the mellowest mildness that ever came from a cigarette—

"Have a Camel!"
